Description
We would like to have a single site (this portal) for TM5-MP. What is needed:  1. instructions sent to new users (a/k/a welcome letter) should be on the wiki 2. relevant information from the TM5-zoom wiki should also end up on the portal wiki 3. finally the more general TM website should link to the wiki or overview of the TM5-MP portal

Task 1 and 3 are done. Now we need to retrieve the TM5-zoom wiki information that is still relevant for TM5-MP. It is easy to export pages from that wiki, but editing is probably still in order before importing in the wiki here.
